

CBI
Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Exporting industrial honey to Germany

The German market offers great opportunities to developing country (DC) exporters of industrial honey. In fact, the popularity of industrial honey has been increasing recently, due to the honey's perceived healthy features compared to sugar and other sweeteners. An interesting segment in this market is organic certified honey. Finally, the use of honey as a flavouring creates numerous possibilities in less traditional industries such as the alcoholic beverages industry.