After 10 years of painting school, when she was only 15, Georgeta decided she wanted to do costume design, so she started tailoring lessons and then went on to study at London College of Fashion. In 2010, the Georgette brand was born.

In the beginning, dresses with the label "Georgette", tailored perfectly from natural fabrics, were only sold through small retailers. After a hard work with her own brand and name, Georgetta Mir, the charismatic brunette with Moldovan-Indian roots, managed in a short time to get out of the narrow patterns of the local clothing industry and to become a sought-after designer. Now Georgette dresses can be found in Romania, Russia, Kazakhstan, Moldova and the United Kingdom.
